

Joseph M. Hubert

Areas of Specialization:

Joe is a specialist in Computer-Aided Design (CAD) drawings, electronic surveying of incident sites, inspection and measurement of vehicles and other project evidence, and field survey work. He performs photogrammetry analysis and digital rectification of photographs for many types of projects. Joe also uses his expertise to create roadway and scene surfaces for three-dimensional models and other demonstrative evidence.

Employment History:

2000 to Present – Wolf Technical Services, Inc., Indianapolis, Indiana

AutoCAD Specialist / Evidence Technician

- Surveys incident locations and produces scene drawings
- Assists with vehicle inspections
- Produces 3-D environments for HVE and other 3-D computer graphics
- Performs photogrammetry analysis and digital rectification of photographs
- Builds three-dimensional, to-scale, working models of incident scenes for courtroom use as demonstrative evidence
- Responsible for intake, custody, control, and maintenance of all project-related evidence

Education:

Associate of Applied Science Degree in Mechanical Drafting 2000
Lincoln Technical Institute, Indianapolis, Indiana

Continuing Education:

Crash Data Retrieval (CDR) System Technician Course 2006