

Joseph P. Weber

Area of Specialization:

Three dimensional computer graphic recreations of physical phenomena including vehicular, marine, aviation, products liability and medical issues. Graphic artist creating digital exhibits for use as demonstrative evidence and educational presentations.

Credentials:

Employment History

1996 to Present

Wolf Technical Services, Inc., Indianapolis, Indiana

3D Animator/Graphic Artist - Duties include creating technically accurate 3D computer graphics for attorneys and insurance companies, creating large format graphics for courtroom display and assisting with company promotional artwork.

1994 - 1996

Mechanics Laundry and Supply, Inc.

Research and Development and Technical Support - Duties included research and development for various computer projects. Technical support for eight outlying locations via modem and phone. Worked closely with programmers and supervised three artists. Responsible for quality control on all outgoing artwork.

1990 - 1994

Graphic Artist - Duties included creating and designing artwork to be used on emblems for laundry customers and working with programmer to develop new "Laundry Software Package", supervised four artists, installed systems at outlying locations and trained new users on laundry software.

Education:

Associate of Applied Science Degree in Graphic Design
Clark College, Indianapolis, Indiana

1991